Beloved Ones:

It is My pleasure to present, once again, for your enjoyment, the report of My Beloved Son, Kuthumi, on the Transmission Flame activities which took place, as you are aware, in the Retreat of the Beloved Paul, the Venetian, on the evening of September 18th immediately preceding.

Blessings and Love,

MAHA CHOHAN

Blessed Children:

Beloved Brothers and Dear Sisters - I always welcome the opportunity of parting the veil just a little and saying 'I love you'. Oh, how deeply My Heart is stirred when an opportunity is provided and the welcome from unascended beings is sufficient to magnetize Our Presence and give Us, before the Cosmic Law, the freedom to speak into the world of form and record for the blessings of men those particular activities of Life which We feel will be of benefit to the evolving consciousness.

You feel that your present state of bondage is a trial when you so desire Freedom, and yet if We, in the greater Freedom which We enjoy, could feel bondage, it would be in the fact that there is so much spiritual knowledge available for the use of mankind - so much in the way of instruction and application - so much in the way of consecrated radiation which, if We could find open doors through which to pour it, would much more quickly hasten the evolution of the race. Yet, no matter what amount of spiritual knowledge and experience We have gathered through the centuries and the ages, We must abide in the patience and wisdom of the Cosmic Law until a voluntary hand from unascended mankind parts the veil - until the prayer from the unascended heart pierces through the psychic realm and opens the door. When even the slightest opening is made, We rush to avail Ourselves of every moment when the opportunity is offered before your attention is drawn again into the things of the world and even the most well-meaning have forgotten Us.

We await, with far more eagerness than you, these short visitations. We prepare carefully, hoping and endeavoring, in the few short moments allotted to Us, to anchor into your sweet worlds and consciousness some seed which, if you would nourish it, would bear fruit for you, and that fruit, being sweet, would give you faith and confidence, and encourage you to come again and sit at the feet of the Master. However, perhaps, in time, you will find such comfort in that aura - such comfort in Our association and Our Presence - that the world and all that is therein will not have such an enticement for you. When that time comes We hope that you will not wander so far from Our Presence - that you will live more fully within Our Aura - because in this way is comradeship built between Our Realm and your own.

Thus will the passing interest and curiosity of the first students on the path become transmuted into a friendship of sorts - into an interest in the purpose and design of the Brotherhood and finally into a comradeship - a mature association - where the unascended being not only enjoys listening to the accounts of the happiness of the higher realms but desires to incorporate his own sweet energies in the causes and the plans - in the hopes and dreams and visions which are Ours to give and which just await the receptive consciousness of man that they may be externalized.

Beloved Kuthumi's Report on the Transmission Flame - Part 2

You have come, beloved ones, from that group of curious ones. You have come from a group of wishful thinkers, and from the worshipping group which in themselves render small service, and now you stand at the point where you are willing to be comrades and friends with the God-free. Therefore, this is why I rush, with all the energies of My being, toward you tonight, bringing into your worlds the Gift which is Mine to give primarily, that is - Spiritual Perception; for, after all, what can a man do is he does not perceive the first plan? No matter how willing the heart - no matter how strong the will to serve - there must be perception within the mind of that which is to be done. There must be a clear understanding of the part that the lifestream can and will play in fulfilling a portion of the Divine Plan - a perception of Our purpose, coupled with a wise, discriminate understanding of the talents and gifts you possess which presently might be used in Our Cause. So, while I am entertaining your minds with a description of the magnificence of the Chateau de Liberte, I am driving the Flame of Gold into your outer consciousness to still the vibrations of your mental bodies. I ask you now, therefore, to please be still and listen.
